Building wellness, cultural connection, and opportunity for Elders and Youth

WELCOME

On behalf of the Nis Ts'edilh Elders and Youth Wellness Society, we are pleased to invite you to partner with us for our 2026 Annual Golf Tournament and Networking Reception. This event brings together community leaders, businesses, supporters, Elders, youth, and friends to raise funds and build meaningful impact.

More than a tournament, this is a gathering grounded in wellness, community, relationship building, and cultural connection. Your sponsorship helps create opportunities for Elders and youth to participate in activities that strengthen health, leadership, belonging, and community pride.

What people said about the 2025 Tournament

“It was an honour to be part of the 2025 Nis Ts’edilh Golf Tournament. From the excellent courses and welcoming atmosphere to the meaningful messages and strong community spirit, the day was top notch from start to finish. We left proud to support Elder and Youth programs and will be back.”

— Heather & Brian

“What began as a local community fundraiser has grown into a meaningful event that brings First Nations and industry partners together through golf, relationship building, and shared purpose. The 2025 tournament was a beautiful day of teamwork, respect for the land, and community connection, made even more powerful by Theo Fleury’s moving message of healing and resilience.”

— Suzanne Johnson, MSc., RD

“Thank you to all the event planners for the time and care that went into such a successful tournament fundraiser. Hearing Theo Fleury speak was especially powerful and inspiring.”

— Sophie Fenus, Indigenous Relations BC
