

Amenities

Consistently ranked in Golf Digest's America's 100 Greatest Golf Courses, Rich Harvest Farms is an ultra-private, members-only club located in Sugar Grove, Illinois. Owned and co-built by Jerry Rich, the course consists of 18 perfectly manicured holes and is a 1,820-acre showcase of nature and agriculture. With state-of-the-art meeting spaces, numerous lodging options and non-golf amenities that include a private car museum, miles of horseback riding trails and three fully stocked lakes for fishing, Rich Harvest Farms offers its Members and guests distinguished facilities in a luxurious setting.

Rich Harvest Farms represents a true links-style setup with players heading out for nine holes, then back in for the remaining nine. The par-72 design can be played from 6,000 to 7,700 yards. Jerry Rich's influence can be found in many areas around the facility, including the naming of each hole, which reflects his inspiration for the course.

Horseback Riding

Trail rides through the majestic Rich Harvest Farms property is a great way to relax while taking in the scenery. Riders must have some riding experience and wear boots with smooth soles and low heels.

All lessons and trail rides will be given by Cyndi Swanson.
